

Robert Wigfield

I believe that God created and rules all of earth. I believe that we are all his children and He loves us all, evenly and unconditionally and that this should mean to all of us that we follow the ten rules that he bestows upon us as a token of gratitude and love for the breath-taking and life-giving wonders of this world.

I believe through prayer and repentance, that all sins will be forgiven. I believe that every day we should pray, repent, and thank God that we got the chance to do so, for without this chance to do so we would be condemned for all eternity.

According to the spiritual gifts test, given to all confirmation students, my main spiritual gift is faith. I believe with a strong faith and a quality trusting relationship with God, I can get through all life's challenges. I still think, however, there is a lot of room for improvements for my relationship with God. I know that anyone, who does not agree that they do not have room for improvement are lying to themselves and God.

Helping and teaching are my other spiritual gifts. I believe that helping each other is the only thing that keeps this world civilized and that we all teach and be taught because without knowledge ignorance occurs.

My favorite Bible verses are Psalms 120, verses 6-7: "Too long have I lived among those who hate peace; I am a man of peace; but when I speak, they are for war." To me this means that we should be tolerant of those around us, but still stand up for what we believe in.
